STATEMENT FROM MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE MAGGIE BROOKS

“At 8:45 AM this morning, a general aviation aircraft departed from the Greater Rochester International Airport (ROC). At 10:45 AM, Airport Director Michael Giardino was contacted by the United States Air Force (USAF) and the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) with inquiries about the aircraft. At this time, the County and Airport will withhold further comment and are referring all inquiries to the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Public Affairs Office at 718-553-3015.”
