

MATT's 1st Annual Autism Spectrum Connection Fair

Saturday, April 21, 2012, 9am-12pm

880 Elmgrove Rd., Rochester, NY 14624

This is a free community event that will connect parents who have children with Autism Spectrum Disorder with the agencies, businesses, and organizations in the Rochester, New York area that provide autism services, support, and information including:

- Alternative communication devices
- Childcare services and assistance
- Early Intervention Services
- Dental and medical care providers with experience with special needs children
- Music, occupational, physical, and speech therapies
- Parent advocacy and support
- Recreational, social, & wellness activities for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder and their families
- And much more...

In addition, this event will be an opportunity for parents to connect with other parents and families who have children with ASD.

There will be activities for the children as well

For MATT's First Annual Autism Spectrum Connection Fair, agencies, businesses, and organizations that provide autism services, support, and information will be provided a free table to promote their organization and services.

Space is limited so please contact us if you would like to have a table at the Autism Spectrum Connection Fair.
