YOUTH AS RESOURCES

Youth As Resources, a program of the Rochester-Monroe County Youth Bureau, seeks to empower and engage youth as partners with adults in creating positive community change and development. Youth and adult members govern the YAR board and provide grants of up to $1000 to local youth in order to develop and carry out community service and service learning projects that clearly address a community need. The funds for YAR grants are made available through a grant from the Rochester Area Community Foundation.

Examples of projects that YAR has funded:

- Painting a mural that promotes healthy lifestyles
- Creating hygiene kits to give to homeless and runaway teenagers
- Refurbishing a daycare center
- Planting memorial gardens
- Conducting a neighborhood clean sweep
- Many more!

THE DETAILS:

- YAR will grant up to $1,000.00 for a community service or service learning project that is youth planned, led, and implemented, and addresses a clear community need.
- To learn more about how to fill out this application, contact the Program Office at (585) 753-6953. We will send you written information or schedule a time to present a workshop to your organization about the application process.

SERVICE-LEARNING

“Service-learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.”

- Learn and Serve America

YAR, Youth Voice One Vision, and Nazareth College Center for Service-Learning have teamed up to establish a partnership called Youth Engaged with Service (YES). YES teaches and promotes the concept of service-learning. YAR aims to have all grant applicants incorporate the principles of service-learning into their projects.

THE DETAILS:

- YAR encourages applicants to incorporate the approaches and goals of service-learning into your proposed projects. Answering all of the questions in this application completely will help you plan a meaningful service-learning project.
- When reviewing applications, the YAR board will be looking at and evaluating proposals based upon the utilization and implementation of concepts of service learning.
- Extra points will be awarded to your application if your project utilizes the principles and meets the objectives of service-learning.
- To learn more about service learning, contact the program office at (585) 753-6953. We will send you written materials or schedule a time to present a workshop to your organization about service-learning.

I. Your Project Idea

- 1) What is the title of your project? How did you decide upon this title?
- 2) Give us a brief summary of what you want to do.
- 3) What are the goals and outcomes you hope to achieve with this project?
- 4) Where will your project take place? When do you plan to begin and end your project?
- 5) What type of community support will you get for this project? (Some examples are: use of space or a facility, community contributions, volunteers, etc.) How will you get this support?
- 6) What is the estimated number of people that will be engaged or will benefit from this project?
- 7) Will you need assistance or special permission to help complete this project? If so, what kind?

II. Youth Leadership

- 1) Why is youth leadership important for this project?
- 2) How will you ensure that youth stay involved and truly lead this project in partnership with adults?

III. Service Learning (NOTE: even if your group is not interested in creating a full-fledged service learning project by answering the questions below you will be able to develop a meaningful project that will effectively serve the community)

“The Five R’s of Service Learning”

(Created by Dr. Marie Watkins, Professor of Social Work & Director of the Center for Service Learning at Nazareth College)

A. Responsible and relevant service:

- 1) What is the community issue, topic or concern your project will address?
- 2) How did your group determine that this topic is important and needs attention in our community?
- 3) What types of service will you be engaged with during the project? (i.e. facilitating workshops, collecting donations, running a food pantry, cleaning up a neighborhood, etc.)
- 4) Will the community groups you are working with be engaged in any type of service? If so what will they be doing?

B. Reciprocity and relationships:

- 1) Which specific community, neighborhood, or group(s) will your project be engaging?
- 2) How will your group connect with the identified group above to share information and resources throughout the project?
- 3) How have you and how will you connect and interact with the larger community beyond the one identified above? (Are you going to invite other community leaders? Will you have a presentation after your project is completed to share the information you learned?)

C. Rigorous active learning:

- 1) What do you hope to learn through planning and carrying out the project?
- 2) What do you hope the community members or participants will learn?

D. Reflection, ongoing:

- 1) What types of reflection activities will you include in your project plan to ensure you are on track in reaching your goal(s)?
- 2) What type of reflection activities (if any) will you work into your actual event / project to help the participants think about the meaning of the project?

E. Recognition and celebration:

- 1) How will you recognize and celebrate the hard work and effort that your group puts into the project? (e.g. pizza party, certificates or awards, fun day, etc.)
- 2) How will you acknowledge and recognize community participation and contributions to your project?

IV. Project Budget

- 1) How much will your entire project cost? (not just the amount you are asking from YAR)
- 2) Will there be any in-kind donations.
- 3) Who will oversee the use of these funds?

Budget:

Directions - Budget Form:

- In column 1: Write down the items / services that you will be purchasing
- In column 2: Write down how much the item is going to cost - be as specific as possible
- In column 3: Write down the amount for each item that will be paid out of YAR Grant Funds in this column
- In column 4: Write down the supplier / provider and the value of any in-kind donations, which are any means of support other than money, usually goods or services provided to the group
- In TOTALS Row: Column 2= total of all expenses, Column 3 = total of all YAR Contributions Column 4 = total of all In-Kind Contributions
- Row one demonstrates an example of how to complete the budget form
- Please make more copies of the budget form if needed

THIS BUDGET FORM MUST BE COMPLETED AS ACCURATELY AS POSSIBLE

1	2	3	4
