Land Use Decision-Making Training Program Fall 2024 – Registration is Open!

(Registration Deadline: October 21, 2024)

Join us for an informative in-person training session for an overview of land use regulations and the environmental review process!

- Date: Wednesday, October 30, 2024
- Time: 4:30 PM to 9:00 PM
- Location: Monroe Community College, 1000 E Henrietta Rd
- Learning Credits: 4 hours (CLEs pending*)
- Cost: $50 (meal included)
(Fee waivers and financial aid are available for eligible participants.)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Topic 1: Introduction to Land Use Law

An overview of federal, state, and local land use regulations, the roles and responsibilities of the Planning Board and Zoning Board of Appeals, and the intersection of land use decisions and the courts.

Topic 2: New York State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA)

An overview of the New York State Environmental Quality Review process, explaining the roles and responsibilities of boards and applicants and exploring the SEQRA process through case studies to gain insights into real-world applications of environmental review.

This training satisfies New York State's four-hour annual training requirement for members of Planning Boards and Zoning Boards of Appeals. Each attendee will receive a Certificate of Participation indicating they attended and their training credits earned.

*Continuing Legal Education Credit (CLEs) is pending and subject to approval.
